Nationwide Call to Pray and Stand Against "LGBTQ History Month"

Mission America Alert

(Columbus, OH, September 10, 2025)

Today, a nationwide call went out for prayer and action during the month of October, as many American public schools observe "LGBTQ History Month."

Mission America, an Ohio-based Christian organization, is leading a coalition asking parents, students and teachers as well as churches to commit to a month of prayer during October as reckless, deceptive events roll out in many schools featuring rainbow radicalism, obscene library selections, "drag" queens as special speakers/assemblies, in-class lessons, and more.

The American Family Association and many other groups have joined this effort.

From lessons training students to become "LGBTQ" activists, to "Coming Out Day" and "International Pronouns Day," the entire month of October is often devoted to the worst immoral elements of 'woke' indoctrination. And with the move this year of the American Library Association's "Banned Books Week" from September to October (coordinating with these other events), students are likely to be assaulted with non-stop pro-homosexual indoctrination.

Do You Have a Gender "Transition" Horror Story to Tell?

Let the FTC Know by September 26

*From Do No Harm

"Following its workshop on the deceptive practices employed by the child transgender industry, the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) is requesting public comments to learn directly from consumers — you and me — how these practices have harmed and deceived them personally. So many of us have been lied to in our most vulnerable and desperate moments. We've watched our children struggle with sex confusion, while the healthcare professionals that we trusted promised so-called 'gender-affirming' care was the only solution that would keep our children alive."

The FTC will be accepting public comments through September 26, 2025....If you'd like to submit a comment to the FTC, please click below for instruction.

Get Ready for "Banned Books Week" and More School Propaganda Events

We've updated our "School Corruption and Propaganda Calendar" published to help parents navigate the minefield of deceptive "events."

One of the first events to kick off "LGBTQ History Month," will be "Banned Books Week," which tells students that even pornographic material should be allowed as part of "diversity, equity and inclusion." Such twisted messages need a good dose of the truth instead. Direct children toward wholesome, uplifting novels and other media.
